PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF
SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD APRIL 23, 2003

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to shareholders of United Bancorp, Inc. ("United Bancorp" or the "Corporation") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Corporation to be used at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and any adjournment thereof, to be held at the time and place set forth in the accompanying notice ("Annual Meeting"). It is anticipated that the mailing of this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card will commence on or about March 15, 2003.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders of the Corporation will be asked to elect four directors.

VOTING AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

If the enclosed form of proxy is properly executed and returned to the Corporation in time to be voted at the Annual Meeting, the shares represented by your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions marked on the proxy. Where properly executed proxies are returned but no such instructions are given, the shares will be voted "For" the election to the Board of Directors of the persons nominated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

The presence of a shareholder at the Annual Meeting will not automatically revoke such shareholder's proxy. However, shareholders may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by filing with the Secretary of the Corporation a written notice of revocation, by delivering to the Corporation a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Written notices of revoked proxies may be directed to Norman F. Assenza, Jr., Secretary, 201 South 4th Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio 43935.

Directors and executive officers of the Corporation, and their affiliates, had sole or shared voting power with respect to 294,535 common shares of the Corporation, representing 9.1% of the Corporation's common shares outstanding as of December 31, 2002. Such directors and officers have advised the Corporation that they intend to vote all of the Corporation's common shares that they are entitled to vote for the election to the Board of Directors of the persons nominated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, the Corporation, through its directors, officers and regular employees, may also solicit proxies personally or by telephone or telecopy without additional compensation. The Corporation will also request persons, firms and corporations holding shares in their names or in the name of their nominees, which are beneficially owned by others, to send proxy material to and obtain proxies from the beneficial owners and will reimburse the holders for their reasonable expenses in doing so.

MEETING INFORMATION

DATE, PLACE AND TIME

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Corporation will be held on Wednesday, April 23, 2003, at 2:00 p.m., local time, at The Citizens Savings Bank, 201 South 4th Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio.

RECORD DATE, VOTING RIGHTS

Only the Corporation's common shares can be voted at the Annual Meeting. Each share entitles its owner to one vote on all matters.

The close of business on March 10, 2003, (the "Record Date"), has been fixed as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. There were approximately 2000 record holders of the Corporation's common shares and 3,223,042 of the Corporation's common shares outstanding as of the Record Date.

The presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the outstanding common shares of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting constitutes a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

The four nominees for director who receive the largest number of votes cast "For" will be elected as directors. Shares represented at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy but withheld or otherwise not cast for the election of directors will have no impact on the outcome of the election of directors.

OWNERSHIP OF VOTING SHARES

The following table sets forth the beneficial ownership of the Corporation's common shares by each of the Corporation's directors and the Corporation's named executive officers, and the directors and executive officers as a group, as of December 31, 2002.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Code of Regulations of the Corporation provides that the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be divided into classes. Ohio law requires that there be at least three directors in each class. Each class shall hold office for a term of two years. At the Annual Meeting, four directors will be elected to a two-year term expiring in 2005.

The nominees for election at the Annual Meeting are James W. Everson, John M. Hoopingarner, Richard L. Riesbeck, and Matthew C. Thomas each of whom is currently a director of the Corporation.

NOMINEES

CLASS "I" DIRECTORS. The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the nominees as Class "I" Directors of the Corporation who will be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. There were no arrangements or understandings pursuant to which the persons listed below were selected as directors or nominees for director.

There were no agreements or understandings pursuant to which any of the persons listed above was selected as a director.

The Board of Directors of United Bancorp met 4 times in 2002. In 2002, each director attended at least 75% of the combined total of meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of each committee on which such director served.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors of United Bancorp has established the following standing audit and compensation committees, with membership noted:

AUDIT COMMITTEE. (Mr. Arciello, Chairman, and Messrs. McGhee and Thomas).

The Audit Committee met 4 times during 2002. The responsibilities of the Audit Committee include recommending the appointment of and overseeing a firm of independent auditors whose duty it is to audit the books and records of United Bancorp and its subsidiaries for the fiscal year for which they are appointed; monitoring and analyzing the results of internal and regulatory examinations; and monitoring United Bancorp's and its subsidiaries' financial and accounting organization and financial reporting. The Audit Committee's report appears under the caption "Audit Committee Report."

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE. (Mr. Riesbeck, Chairman, and Messrs. Hoopingarner and Richardson).

The Compensation Committee met once in 2002. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility of recommending for the approval of the Board of Directors the remuneration arrangements for the directors and chief executive officers of United Bancorp's subsidiary banks. The Compensation Committee's report on executive compensation matters for 2002 appears under the caption "Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation".

United Bancorp does not have a nominating committee or other committee of its Board of Directors that performs the function of nominating persons for the Corporation's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors nominates persons for election as United Bancorp directors.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of United Bancorp's Board of Directors (the "Committee") is composed of three directors, each of whom is independent as defined by the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards, and operates under a written charter. The members of the Committee are Michael J. Arciello (Chair), Terry A. McGhee and Matthew C. Thomas. The Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the Corporation's independent accountants.

Management is responsible for the Corporation's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Corporation's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee the processes.

In this context, the Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Committee that the Corporation's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. The Committee discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (communication with Audit Committees).

The Corporation's independent accountants also provided to the Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence. The Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent accountants to the Corporation and its subsidiaries is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent accountants.

Based upon the Committee's discussion with management and the independent accountants and the Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants to the Committee, the Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS. The Company has entered into change-in-control agreements with Messrs. James W. Everson, Hooker, Scott A. Everson, Greenwood and Assenza. The agreements provide that Mr. James W. Everson, Mr. Hooker, Mr. Scott A. Everson, Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Assenza will be entitled to a lump sum severance benefit in the event of their involuntary termination of employment (other than for cause) following a "change in control" of the Corporation. A change in control is defined to include the acquisition of the Corporation and certain other changes in the voting control of the Corporation. In the event of a change in control and the involuntary termination of employment, the agreements provide that Mr. James W. Everson will receive 2.99 times his annual compensation, Mr. Hooker will receive 2.0 times his annual compensation, Mr. Scott A. Everson will receive 2.0 times his annual compensation, Mr. Greenwood will receive 1.0 time his annual compensation and Mr. Assenza will receive 1.0 times his annual compensation in a lump sum cash payment. Each agreement has a term of one year and is automatically extended for one additional year unless, not later than June 30 of the preceding year, the Corporation gives notice of termination of the agreement. The right of the Corporation to terminate the employment of Mr. James W. Everson, Mr. Hooker, Mr. Scott A. Everson, Mr. Greenwood and/or Mr. Assenza prior to a change in control is unaffected by these agreements. In the event a change in control had occurred on January 1, 2003, and Mr. James W. Everson's, Mr. Hooker's, Mr Scott A. Everson's, Mr. Greenwood's or Mr. Assenza's employment had been involuntarily terminated on such date (other than for cause), Mr. James W. Everson, Mr. Hooker, Mr. Scott A. Everson, Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Assenza would have been entitled to receive lump sum severance benefits of $752,448, $248,778, $208,968, $101,868 and $105,841 respectively. In the event a potential change in control is announced, the agreements obligate Mr. James W. Everson, Mr. Hooker, Mr Scott A. Everson, Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Assenza to remain in the employment of the Corporation for not less than one year following the change in control of the Corporation.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

United Bancorp compensates each director for services as a director in the following manner: each director receives an annual retainer fee of $5,000 regardless of board meeting attendance and $416 per meeting attended. Each member of the Compensation Committee receives $214 for each meeting attended.

PENSION PLAN

United Bancorp maintains a defined benefit pension plan for its eligible fulltime employees. It may provide monthly benefits commencing as early as age 50, but not later than age 70, for employees who terminate employment or retire with 5 or more years of credited service.

Benefits at retirement or vested termination of employment are based on years of credited service, and the average of the highest five consecutive years of compensation. The plan is integrated with social security covered compensation.

The table below sets forth retirement benefits at various levels of compensation and years of service based upon retirement at age 65. For this table, benefits are payable to the participant for life and are based on 2002 terms and factors.

Notes: Maximum annual pension available in 2002 in accordance with Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code assuming a minimum of ten years participation is $160,000.

The maximum annual compensation allowed under Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code in determining a participant's benefit in 2002 is $200,000.

As of December 31, 2002, Mr. James W. Everson had 41 years of credited service with the Corporation, Mr. Hooker had 4 years of credited service with the Corporation, Mr. Scott A. Everson had 11 years of credited service with the Corporation, Mr. Greenwood had 5 years of credited service with the Corporation and Mr. Assenza had 24 years of credited service with the Corporation.

OTHER COMPENSATION PLANS

United Bancorp has established a stock option plan under which the Corporation may award options to acquire the Corporation's common shares to directors and key employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. As of December 31, 2002, 49,259 common shares remained available for the grant of options under the Plan.

United Bancorp has also established the United Bancorp, Inc. and United Bancorp, Inc. Affiliate Banks Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan under which directors of the Corporation may defer directors fees and instead receive United Bancorp common shares on retirement or other termination of membership on the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Under rules established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the Corporation is required to provide certain data and information in regard to the compensation and benefits provided to the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and, if applicable, the four other most highly compensated executive officers, whose compensation exceeded $100,000 during the Corporation's last fiscal year. The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") has the responsibility of determining the compensation policy and practices of the Corporation with respect to all of the Corporation's executive officers. At the direction of the Board of Directors, the Committee has prepared the following report for inclusion in this Proxy Statement.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY. This report reflects the Corporation's compensation philosophy as endorsed by the Committee. The Committee determines the level of compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and all other executive officers within the constraints of the amounts approved by the Board.

Essentially, the executive compensation program of the Corporation has been designed to:

- Support a pay-for-performance policy that rewards executive officers for corporate performance.
- Motivate key senior officers to achieve strategic business goals.
- Provide compensation opportunities which are comparable to those offered by other peer group companies, thus allowing the Corporation to compete for and retain talented executives who are critical to the Corporation's long-term success.

SALARIES. The Committee set the base salary paid to Mr. James W. Everson at $187,500 effective January 1, 2003 and paid him directors fees in the amount of $23,675 for serving on the Corporation's Board of Directors and two subsidiary banks' boards of directors. Mr. Hooker's base salary was set at $107,000 and he was paid director fees of $6,699 for serving on the board of directors of a subsidiary bank. Mr. Scott A. Everson's base salary was set at $100,000 and he was paid director's fees of $5,829. Mr. Greenwood's base salary was set at $90,000. Mr. Assenza's base salary was set at $86,000. The Corporation has used the services of an independent outside consultant in setting executive compensation, as well as compensation surveys. Executive officers' salary increase determinations are based upon annual reviews of the performance of such executives which assess, among other criteria, the performance of the executive against goals set in the prior year, extraordinary service and promotions within the organization and compensation levels within peer groups.

INCENTIVE COMPENSATION. The executive officers of the Corporation participate in incentive compensation plans which provide the opportunity to earn an annual bonus calculated as a percentage of salary, half based on achievement of predetermined goals established by the boards of directors of each subsidiary bank and half by the measured increase of annual earnings per share as reported to the shareholders. The type and relative weighting of goals may change from year to year. For 2002 the incentive amounts distributed were determined by achievement against specific earnings per share growth, loan and deposit growth, return on assets, return on equity. In addition, participants other than the Chief Executive Officer have a portion of their incentives determined by goals for their individual areas of responsibility. Eligibility and allocation of incentive awards for all participants are determined by the Compensation Committee.

LONG-TERM COMPENSATION. Long-term incentive compensation is addressed by the Corporation's stock option plan. The stock option plan was designed to provide long-term incentives to the executive officers and directors of the Corporation, and to better align the interests of management with those of the Corporation, as the level of compensation is directly proportional to the level of appreciation in the market value of the Corporation's common shares subsequent to the date of the option grant.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE. United Bancorp Directors serving on the Compensation Committee are named below:

Richard L. Riesbeck, Chairman
John M. Hoopgarner

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION IN COMPENSATION DECISIONS

Regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission require the disclosure of any related party transactions with members of the Compensation Committee. During the past year, certain directors and officers, including members of the Compensation Committee, and one or more of their associates may have been customers of and had business transactions with one or more of the bank subsidiaries of United Bancorp, Inc. All loans included in such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. It is expected that similar transactions will occur in the future. In addition, The Citizens Savings Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Corporation, pursuant to the terms of a lease entered into on April 1, 1998, paid Riesbeck Food Markets, Inc. $25,128 in 2002, and over the five-year term of the lease, payments will total $130,000 as lease payments for space used in an in-store banking location at St. Clairsville, Ohio. Mr. Riesbeck, Chairman of the Compensation Committee, is an officer, director and shareholder of Riesbeck Food Markets, Inc. Management believes the lease between Riesbeck Food Markets, Inc. and the Corporation was made on an arms-length basis. Management employed a third party consulting firm that specializes in grocery store banking facilities to establish the terms of the lease.

of reports furnished to United Bancorp by Insiders, all Section 16 reporting requirements applicable to Insiders during 2002 were satisfied on a timely basis.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR NEXT ANNUAL MEETING

Shareholders may submit proposals appropriate for shareholder action at the Corporation's Annual Meeting consistent with the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. For proposals to be considered for inclusion in the Proxy Statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting, they must be received by the Corporation no later than November 15, 2003. Such proposals should be directed to United Bancorp, Inc., Attention: Chief Executive Officer, 201 South Fourth Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio 43935. Any shareholder who intends to propose any other matter to be acted upon at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must inform the Corporation not less than sixty nor more than ninety days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that if less than seventy-five days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given to shareholders, notice by the shareholder must be received not later than the close of business on the fifteenth day following the earlier of the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. If notice is not provided by that date, the persons named in the Corporation's proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting will be allowed to exercise their discretionary authority to vote upon any such proposal without the matter having been discussed in the proxy statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting.

In order to make a director nomination at a shareholder meeting it is necessary that you notify United Bancorp no fewer than 60 days in advance of the meeting. In addition, the notice must meet all other requirements contained in the Company's Code of Regulations.

SELECTION OF AUDITORS

For the year ended December 31, 2002, Crowe, Chizek and Company LLP ("Crowe Chizek") served the Corporation as independent auditor. We expect representatives of Crowe Chizek to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make statements if they so desire and to be available to respond to appropriate questions raised at the Annual Meeting.

On November 19, 2002, the Board of Directors of United Bancorp, upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee, dismissed Crowe Chizek as the its independent public accountant for all periods commencing on or after January 1, 2003, and engaged the firm of Grant Thornton, LLP as its new independent public accountant, effective for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 2003. Crowe Chizek's report on the consolidated financial statements of the Corporation for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001, there were no disagreements between the United Bancorp and Crowe Chizek on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Crowe Chizek, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001, there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of SEC Regulation S-K.

OTHER BUSINESS

Management is not aware of any other matter which may be presented for action at the meeting other than the matters set forth herein. Should any matter other than those set forth herein be presented for a vote of the shareholders, the proxy in the enclosed form directs the persons voting such proxy to vote in accordance with their judgement.
